05 Nights Kerala Trip

Day 01 Kochi

Dinner

On Reaching Kochi, Welcomed By WTP Official And Checked In At The Hotel, Freshened Up And Explore City.

Kochi (also known as Cochin) is a city in southwest India's coastal Kerala state. It has been a port since 1341, when a flood carved out its harbor and opened it to Arab, Chinese and European merchants. Sites reflecting those influences include Fort Kochi, a settlement with tiled colonial bungalows and diverse houses of worship. Cantilevered Chinese fishing nets, typical of Kochi, have been in use for centuries.

Day 03 Munnar

 Breakfast  Dinner

Munnar is situated at the confluence of three mountain streams – Muthirapuzha, Nallathanni and Kundala – and the word 'Munnar' means three rivers in Malayalam. Situated about 1600m above sea level, the hill station had been the summer resort of the British Government during the colonial era. Situated at an altitude of 1,600 meters (5,200 ft) above sea level in the Western Ghats. Munnar enjoys a pleasant climate year-round, making it a popular destination for visitors. The hills are dotted with vast tea plantations, a hallmark of the region. The rare Neelakurinji flower, which blooms once every 12 years, attracts many visitors. The highest peak in South India, Anamudi, is located in Munnar and is a popular trekking spot. Munnar is home to a diverse array of flora and fauna, including the endangered Nilgiri Tahr in Eravikulam National Park. Munnar was once the summer capital of the British in South India, and remnants of this past can still be seen in the area.

Day 05- Thekkady to Alleppey

Breakfast

Dinner

Alleppey, also known as Alappuzha, is a coastal city in Kerala, India, famous for its intricate network of canals, backwaters, and lagoons, earning it the nickname "Venice of the East". It's a popular tourist destination, particularly known for houseboat cruises that offer a unique experience of the backwaters. The city is also famous for its beaches, the annual Nehru Trophy Boat Race, and the diverse wildlife and bird species that thrive in the backwater ecosystem. Alleppey is renowned for its vast network of canals, rivers, and lakes that crisscross the landscape. The intricate waterways and serene backwaters have earned Alleppey the nickname. Houseboats are a popular way to explore the backwaters, offering a unique and immersive experience of the landscape and village life. The Vembanad Lake, the longest lake in the Indian peninsula, plays a significant role in Alleppey's backwater system. Alleppey boasts a beautiful coastline, including Alappuzha Beach, which hosts various events like the Alappuzha Beach Festival. The annual Nehru Trophy Boat Race is a major attraction, held in Punnamada Lake and attracts large crowds. Alleppey also features religious sites like Mullakkal Rajeshwari Temple and Chettikulangara Devi Temple, as well as historical places like Krishnapuram Palace. Alleppey is known for its coir factories and is a major center for coir production in Kerala. Overall, Alleppey offers a unique blend of natural beauty, cultural experiences, and adventure, making it a captivating destination for travelers seeking a relaxing and immersive experience in Kerala's backwaters.
