Day 01 Goa

Dinner

On reaching Goa, welcomed by WTP official and checked in at the hotel, freshened up. The state of Goa, located on the west coast of India, is famous for its beautiful beaches, vibrant culture and rich history, especially its Portuguese colonial heritage. It is a popular tourist destination known for its laid-back atmosphere and diverse offerings, including colonial architecture, ancient temples and a unique blend of Indian and European traditions. Goa is famous for its long coastline, with many beaches, including Palolem and Calangute, attracting tourists with their sandy shores and water activities. Tourism, agriculture (including rice, cashews and betelnuts) and mining contribute significantly to Goa's economy. Goa has a tropical climate and diverse ecosystems, including forests (covering more than a third of the state's area) and the Western Ghats, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Goa also has ancient temples, ornate churches such as the Basilica of Bom Jesus, and the Dudhsagar Falls. (You Can Shop Or Plan Any Adventure By Yourself.)

Evening view: The local market has many showrooms, department stores, shops, restaurants and cafes. The Goa Emporium, which sells Goan handicraft products such as locally designed woollen clothes, branded clothing, pottery, wooden products and jewellery, is also located here.
