Day7: Guptkashi - Sonprayag - Kedarnath (Trek 16 Km One Way)

This morning, we will depart for Sonprayag—a small town in Uttarakhand renowned for its religious significance at the confluence of the Mandakini and Vasuki rivers, as well as for serving as a crucial stopover on the route to Kedarnath. From Sonprayag, we will switch vehicles and proceed towards Gaurikund in smaller conveyances. From Gaurikund, we will commence our trek to Kedarnath (a 22 km uphill climb, one way). Dedicated to Lord Shiva, this temple is believed to be over 1,200 years old. It was built by Adi Shankaracharya and stands as one of the 12 Jyotirlingas of India. The pilgrimage to the Kedarnath Temple forms an integral part of Uttarakhand's famous 'Char Dham Yatra.' Here, we will also visit the 'Bhim Shila'—a massive rock situated near the Kedarnath Temple, believed to have played a pivotal role in shielding the temple during the devastating floods of 2013. Subsequently, we will visit the Samadhi (final resting place) of Adi Shankaracharya and, in the evening, participate in the mesmerizing *Aarti* ceremony at the Kedarnath Temple.

Note: Guests unable to undertake the trek on foot may hire a *Palki* (palanquin) or a pony at their own expense. Accommodation in Kedarnath will be provided on a shared basis.
