Best Time to Visit

The best time to experience Winter Spiti Valley is from December to February, when the region transforms into a beautiful snow-covered wonderland. During this period, travellers can enjoy frozen landscapes, snow-covered mountains, peaceful villages and breathtaking Himalayan views.

Winter Season (December – February):

- Experience beautiful snowfall and snow-covered mountain landscapes.
- Enjoy spectacular winter views around Kalpa and Kinnaur.
- Witness the frozen beauty of high-altitude Himalayan regions.
- Explore the unique winter lifestyle and culture of Spiti Valley.
- Capture stunning snow landscapes and memorable winter photographs.

Temperature: Winter temperatures can range from approximately -5°C to -25°C or even lower in some parts of Spiti Valley.

Travel Advice: January and February are generally the coldest months. Heavy snowfall, road closures and extreme weather can affect travel plans. The Rampur–Kalpa–Kaza route may not remain accessible throughout winter, so route feasibility and local road conditions must be confirmed before departure.

Recommended: Carry heavy woollen clothing, thermal wear, snow boots, gloves, caps and other essential winter gear.
